Crew Main article: Film crew A film crew is a group of people hired by a film company, employed during the production or photography phase, for the purpose of producing a film or motion picture. Crew is distinguished from cast, who are the actors who appear in front of the camera or provide voices for characters in the film. The crew interacts with but is also distinct from the production staff, consisting of producers, managers, company representatives, their assistants, and those whose primary responsibility falls in pre-production or post-production phases, such as screenwriters and film editors. Communication between production and crew generally passes through the director and his/her staff of assistants. Medium-to-large crews are generally divided into departments with well-defined hierarchies and standards for interaction and cooperation between the departments. Other than acting, the crew handles everything in the photography phase: props and costumes, shooting, sound, electrics i.e., lights, sets, and production special effects. Caterers known in the film industry as craft services are usually not considered part of the crew.

Box office : In early March 2020, it was predicted that the global box office could lose US billion as a result of the pandemic. Countries that are pandemic hot-spots have closed or restricted cinemas and movie theaters, negatively affecting film revenue. Attendance has also been lower in other regions. Following the pandemic in mainland China, 70,000 cinemas were closed in January 2020. In the first two months of 2020, Chinas box office was down to US.9 million, compared to US.148 billion in the first two months of 2020.2 Later, as a result of the pandemic in Italy, on March 8, 2020, the Italian government ordered all cinemas to be closed, for up to a month. Before the closure, box office tracking estimated a

94% drop for the weekend of March 6–8 compared to the same period the previous year.<sup>8</sup> Because of the growing pandemic in France, cinemas are operating at half capacity, leaving strategic seats unavailable to reduce proximity in the screens,<sup>9</sup> a move followed days later by the Irish and Northern Irish cinema chain Omniplex Cinemas.<sup>10</sup> On March 12, Qatar also closed all cinemas,<sup>11</sup> as did the US on March 17, Malaysia and Thailand on March 18,<sup>12</sup> the UK on March 20, Australia and New Zealand on March 22, and Singapore on March 27.<sup>13</sup> After a state of emergency was declared in Tokyo and six other prefectures in Japan on April 7,<sup>14</sup> over 220 cinemas were closed.<sup>15</sup><sup>16</sup><sup>17</sup>

Two weeks later, movie theaters in Los Angeles began reopening with 25% capacity. On March 23, 2021, Regal Cinemas announced that they would reopen their cinemas beginning April 2, 2021.<sup>199</sup> On April 19, it was announced that capacity for New York cinemas would be raised to 33% on April 26.<sup>200</sup> The same day, California issued an addendum that orange-tier counties would be restricted to 50% with no hard cap on patrons, and that counties under the yellow Minimal tier would be allowed to operate cinemas and other selected venues at up to 75% capacity if all attendees present proof of full vaccination or a recent negative COVID-19 test. Guidance was also issued for seating sections with less physical distancing for those who are fully vaccinated.<sup>201</sup> After filing for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in October 2020 and March 2021, respectively,<sup>202</sup><sup>203</sup> Studio movie Grill and Alamo Drafthouse Cinema respectively emerged from Chapter 11 in late-April 2021 and early-June 2021 with new funding, and some underperforming locations closed along with plans for new theaters being built.<sup>204</sup><sup>205</sup> On April 21, 2021, The Decurion Corporation, parent company of Arclight Cinemas, the Cinerama Dome, and Pacific Theaters, announced they would be shutting down all of its locations, due to the financial impact of the pandemic.<sup>206</sup><sup>207</sup> Two months later, Pacific Theaters filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy.<sup>208</sup>
